Personal Safety Equipment

A wide range of personal protective equipment is available to all martial artists for the Health and Safety of not only the wearer, but also any other persons engaged in activities with them.

The range of equipment varies within styles and rules applied. The instructor will ensure that appropriate safety equipment is worn in accordance with this policy which may include:

- a) Head-guard.
- b) Gum-shield.
- c) Chest Guard
- d) Forearm protector
- e) Gloves -
- f) Groin guard
- g) Shin/instep protector
- h) Foot protector

Safety equipment should be worn during all contact activities where a risk of injury is likely. Such equipment will usually be determined by national or international rules and regulations.

For personal hygiene and efficiency, borrowing and lending of equipment is not to be recommended or encouraged. All members should obtain their own personal items of safety equipment.

Any refusal or non-compliance with any reasonable request to wear adequate safety equipment MUST result in the exclusion of the individual concerned, from any activity requiring such protection, for the health and safety of themselves and others.

First Aid

Under the Health and Safety (First Aid) regulations 1981, premises must have first aid provision.

At least one first aid box should be kept on each of the premises used or occupied by the club/s. Where applicable a qualified first aider or responsible person shall be expected to maintain the box.

A 'Responsible' or 'Appointed person' is someone who is authorised or expected to take charge of a serious situation (e.g. to call an ambulance) if there is a serious illness or injury. The person will act in the absence of the trained or qualified first aider, or where a qualified first aider is not required.

A qualified first aider is a person who must have undertaken training and obtained qualifications (usually via St John Ambulance or Red Cross). The certificate is valid for 3 years.

Emergency first aid training should be considered for all appointed persons.

A record (Accident book) must be maintained in conjunction with the first aid box.

Members should be made aware of any activity that might be potentially dangerous, and any exclusions to their personal indemnity as a result of such practices.

First Aid Special Precautions

1. In any situation requiring first aid, certain precautions should be taken to reduce the risk of transmitting infections, including AIDS and hepatitis.
2. First aiders should always cover any exposed cuts or abrasions they may have with a waterproof dressing before treating a casualty whether or not any infection is suspected.
3. They should also wash their hands both before and after applying dressings
4. Whenever blood, semen, or other body fluids have to be mopped up, disposable plastic gloves should always be worn and paper towels used, these items should then be placed in plastic bags and safely disposed of, preferably by burning. Clothing may be cleaned in an ordinary washing machine using the hot cycle. The AIDS virus is killed by household bleach and the area in which any spills have occurred should be disinfected using one part bleach diluted with 10 parts water, caution should be exercised as bleach is corrosive and can be harmful to the skin.

5. If direct contact with another person's blood or other body fluids occur, the area should be washed as soon as possible with ordinary soap and water. Clean cold tap water should be used if the lips, mouth, tongue, eyes or broken skin are affected and medical advice sought.

6. First aiders who may be called upon to give mouth to mouth resuscitation should be aware that mouthpieces are available for this procedure for specially trained persons. Such treatment should NEVER be withheld in an emergency if a mouth piece is not available. No case of infection has been reported from any part of the world as a result of giving mouth to mouth resuscitation.

Competitions

It is a requirement to have the following safety measures in place at all competitions, whether at club, area, national or international level:-

1. First Aid must be provided at all competitions by a trained agency or individuals.
2. Mats must be used during all competitions
3. Licences: Every fighter must produce their licence which includes a medical record. Any head injury must be entered and in the case of a concussion, a fighter may not compete for 30 days or until cleared by a doctor.
4. Referees: will make the safety of the fighters the first priority and must stop the contest at any sign of distress or inability to defend.

Disciplinary Procedures

Failure to observe the rules and guidance in this policy may lead to disciplinary action being taken.
